blog.thebump.com - Now, I'm not one to be a spoil-sport. When I attend a shower, I'm right there sniffing melted candy-bar poo out of diapers, taking licks of baby food out of anonymous jars and confidently guessing ...

FROM THE EDITOR

Holly Shearman

I am a mother of four children and I'm a midwife. I own a Birth Center in Houston (West Houston Birth Center). I have worked as a midwife in Texas and Virginia. I have been attending births since 1994 and became a CPM in 1999. Read More about Holly: (<http://www.theamericanmidwife.com>)

The advertisement features the Ohio University logo at the top left, which includes a stylized building and the year 1804. To the right of the logo, the text "OHIO UNIVERSITY" is displayed. Below the logo and text, there is a photograph of a man in an orange shirt and glasses, standing in a professional setting. The text "MASTER OF HEALTH ADMINISTRATION ONLINE" is prominently displayed in white on a dark green background. Below this, the phrase "Master the Business of Health Care" is written in a smaller font. At the bottom of the advertisement, a purple button contains the text "CONTACT US TODAY!". In the top right corner of the ad, there are small icons for a play button and a close button (X).
